

Veterinary Aquaculture Research & Policy Fellowship with Connecticut Sea Grant and NOAA Fisheries

Application Form

Thank you for your interest in this Fellowship program.. This 2–4 week program is designed for veterinary students from diverse backgrounds wanting to explore aquaculture medicine research and policy.

Please complete and send all application materials at least 3 months prior to your desired start date to NEFSC.intern@noaa.gov with the subject line, "Veterinary Aquaculture Fellowship-Your Name". This includes this application form, a resume (2-page max), and an unofficial copy of your veterinary school transcription. .

If you have any questions about the externship or the application process, please email NEFSC.intern@noaa.gov.

Contact information and demographics:

Full Name:

Email Address:

Veterinary School:

Anticipated graduation date (MM/YYYY):

Gender identity (optional):

Race/ethnicity (optional):

Only U.S. citizens are eligible to apply at this time.

Are you a U.S. Citizen?: Y / N

Desired fellowship dates and travel:

We are presently accepting applications for fellowships taking place between April 2024 and October 2024. Fellowships can take place for 2-4 weeks.

1st preference fellowship dates:

2nd preference fellowship dates:

3rd preference fellowship dates:

If you have a disability and may require accommodations in order to fully participate, please indicate your requirements here:

- 3) This program aims to promote diversity in the aquatic veterinary community. How will aspects of your unique background, identity, and experiences contribute to your future role as a veterinarian?

Thank you for your interest in the Veterinary Aquaculture Research & Policy Fellowship. Please do not forget to submit your completed application form along with your resume and unofficial transcript via email to NEFSC.intern@noaa.gov with the subject line, "Veterinary Aquaculture Fellowship - Your name".